Dear Ms. Hopkins:

On January 17, 1995, Washington State Department of Ecology (Ecology) representatives attended a sampling event at which Wendy Thompson, Dave St. John, and Doug Bowers represented the U.S. Department of Energy and Bechtel Hanford, Incorporated. During the sampling event, the samplers exhibited commendable professionalism by competently fulfilling the intent of the Description of Work. In addition, new information was obtained to which the sampling team responded outstandingly. Ecology would like to voice its appreciation for the professionalism shown by the sampling team as demonstrated by their ability to safely and expertly adapt to the changing circumstances during the in-field characterization of 100-D Ponds.

Sincerely,
