

~NOTICE~

Modification of the Expiration Date for the Research Development and Demonstration (RD&D) Permit for the Demonstration Bulk Vitrification System

January 22, 2008

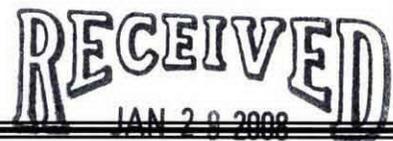

This notice is provided to advise all persons on the State of Washington, Department of Ecology (Ecology) facility mailing list and state and local government representatives of a permit modification. This notification is made in compliance with WAC 173-303-830(4)(a)(i)(B).

In a letter dated September 21, 2007, the U.S. Department of Energy, Office of River Protection (ORP) and CH2M HILL Hanford Group, Inc. (CH2M HILL), the owners of the subject RD&D Permit, requested that the expiration date of December 13, 2007 for the Permit be modified as a Class 1 Prime modification to December 13, 2013. On November 19, 2007, Ecology notified ORP and CH2M HILL that the modification was approved.
