TRI-PARTY AGENCIES' ANNUAL PUBLIC INVOLVEMENT SURVEYWE NEED YOUR EVALUATION

The U.S. Department of Energy, Washington State Department of Ecology, and U.S. Environmental Protection Agency – the Tri-Party Agreement (TPA) agencies – conduct an annual evaluation of the overall effectiveness of public involvement activities at Hanford. This survey is our assessment of TPA public involvement that occurred in 2007. Some examples include the Hanford State of the Site meetings, the USDOE Budget workshop, as well as several workshops throughout the year. We would also like to know whether our Listserv notices and mailings contain the information you need.

Please take a few moments to answer the questions on this survey. It will help us do a better job engaging and informing the public. To take the survey, please connect to the following website:

Or you can access the survey from Ecology's Nuclear Waste Program web site:

Your comments and responses are important. Results of the survey will be posted on Ecology's Nuclear Waste Program web site and the USDOE Hanford web site. For more information, call the toll-free Hanford Cleanup line at 800-321-2008.

Thank you!
