

In your own words.

069650

Use this space for any additional comments you would like to make.

The Hanford Reach and all surrounding areas should be preserved as wild and scenic lands, and this should extend to all adjacent areas of the Columbia River and the highlands overlooking the Columbia River.

With the American treaty rights to access to the natural resources of the Columbia Basin should be protected, and upheld.

[Signature]
Kendall L. Brown

Your comments are important!

If you are unable to present your input at one of the public hearings, you can mail, fax or e-mail your comments to:

Thomas W. Ferns, NEPA Document Manager
Hanford Remedial Action Environmental Impact Statement
U.S. Department of Energy, Richland Operations Office
P.O. Box 550, MSIN HO-12
Richland, WA 99352

(509) 376 - 4360 (fax)

e-mail your comments to: Thomas_W_Ferns@RL.gov

The Hanford Public Interest Groups encourage you to provide your input!

The Hanford Public Interest Group Network:

Government Accountability Project
1402 - 3rd Avenue, Suite 1215
Seattle, WA 98101
(206) 292-2850

Hanford Watch
2285 SE Cypress
Portland, OR 97214
(503) 232-0848

Heart of America Northwest
1305 - 4th Avenue, Suite 208
Seattle, WA 98101
(206) 382-1014

Sierra Club
1516 Melrose
Seattle, WA 98122
(206) 621-1696

Hanford Action of Oregon
25-6 NW 23rd Place #406
Portland, OR 97210
(503) 235-2531

Washington Physicians for Social Responsibility
4554 - 12th Avenue NE
Seattle, WA 98105
(206) 547-2630

Columbia River United
P.O. Box 912
Bingen, WA 98605
(509) 493-2808