Subject: Ecology: Visit our new website

This message is from the Washington State Department of Ecology:

On Wednesday, June 28, 2006, the Washington State Department of Ecology unveiled a new look and navigation to their website.

The Nuclear Waste Program homepage on Ecology's website is: <http://www.ecy.wa.gov/programs/nwp/>

In addition, Ecology has created a featured Hanford page: <http://www.ecy.wa.gov/features/hanford/index.htm>

Enjoy!

Comments and suggestions to content and layout are always welcome.
