Number: 2018-008

SUBJECT: (Note the change request number, disputed subject or milestone addressed)

Agreement to include non-TPA documentation in the AR/PIR database

DECISION / DETERMINATION / ACTION ITEM: (Note the assignee and due date)

The Hanford Administrative Record/Public Information Repository (AR/PIR) website has primarily housed Tri-Party Agreement (TPA)-related documentation for several decades. Because the Hanford Site does not have an alternative public facing electronic records database, the AR/PIR has also been used as a repository for various non-TPA documents. During the fourth week of July 2018, the U.S. Department of Energy (DOE), the Washington State Department of Ecology (Ecology), and the U.S. The Environment Protection Agency (EPA) met to discuss an agreement to continue including Ecology-originated documents in the AR/PIR.

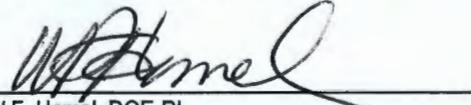

As a result of those discussions DOE, Ecology, and EPA have agreed to allow Ecology to upload non-TPA documents into the AR/PIR database for stakeholder/public convenience due to the sometimes intersecting themes with TPA scope.

These documents are not governed by TPA processes and procedures, and the originator of the documents will be responsible for quality assurance and maintenance of any official record copies.
