Subject: Re: Conference Call to Discuss Hanford News Article

HanfReachArticle.doc

My apologies for no response. I cannot meet Thursday morning. But I know you all will represent the issue admirably.

I do have a couple of comments. If our audience is Hanford Reach, we don't need any of the stuff about "what is Hanford." The writing style for this publication is a bit more chatty and informal. How about something like the attached for this "internal" audience.....?

If our audience is broader, we'd better find an interesting lead.. a cute little family of larks, pocket mice, and burrowing owls that are thriving because we saved the shrub steppe ... and, oh by the way, the Trustee Council's job is to protect that habitat from harm or restore it if it gets injured... and protecting the habitat for the critters protects it for us all.

I don't think we want to spend much time on statutory authority or chronological history.

OK, that's my 50 cents worth. I'll be gone Thursday Dec. 21-Tuesday Jan. 2. Have a happy holiday. Be safe.
